1. O Lord of life, breathe Thou on me; Un - seal Thy liv - ing fount from me;
That from with - in Thou mo - ti - vate, O Light of life, il - lu - mi - nate.

2. What wonder, Lord, Thou art in me;
I seek not heights nor depths for Thee,
But in my spirit, instantly,
Spirit I touch, no space from Thee.
3. Thou art my Advocate in heav'n,
My spirit's ointment, grace within;
All Thou before God dost for me
Is in my spirit touched by me.
4. Yet how unfaithful is my heart;
Oft deeply touched, I still depart;
Lord, visit, pity, breathe, inspire,
My function to fulfill entire.
5. Lord, when my spirit's drained and low,
And can't Your grace to others show,
Then breathe upon me inwardly,
That I be fully filled with Thee.
