Who for the right way races

Encouragement — For Trusting the Lord

8474

(Guitar: Capo 1)

C G G7 C

1. Who for the right way rac - es, Hands droop - ing, wea - ried, sore— Oh,

C G C G G7 C

look a - way to Je - sus; Be tired, dis - mayed no more. His face, with shin - ing bril - liance, Drives trou - bling gloom a - way; His

G G7 C F G

C F C G G7 C

glo - rious face re - gard - ing, You'll be as bright as day.

2. Just look away to Jesus—
You surely will not see
The persecution, hardships,
That press, surrounding thee.
There'll be no tears of sorrow
Your vision to occlude;
No dangers and no terrors
Your heart to veil, delude.

3. Oh, look away to Jesus;
Deep grace your spirit finds;
This world has tribulation;
In Jesus, peace is thine.
Man's life a stormy sea is,
Much prone to surging waves,
But look away to Jesus—
Your heart won't be dismayed.

4. Oh, look away to Jesus;
Confused you will not be;
If oft to Him your gaze is,
He'll point the way for thee.
And as He leads thee forward,
Though clouds or fog are there,
Your head incline before Him;
You surely will not err.

5. Oh, look away to Jesus,
Till, taking you on high,
He shows His glorious visage
In full before your eyes.
Today the face of Jesus
Gives strength along the way;
That day 'twill turn to praises
And make you glad for aye.