

Soon our Lord will come, the day is drawing nigh (revised)

Hope of Glory — Waiting and Watching

8755

1. Soon our Lord will come, the day is draw-ing nigh, Sound of His ap-proach-ing we can hear.
Watch-ful we must be and al-ways on alert That the Lord our hearts with rap-ture cheer.
Chorus
(C) Glo-ry! Christ returns in bright ar-ray! Glo-ry! All the saints re-joice that day!
Shameful bod-y changed to glo-rious display, Christ's blest por-tion we enjoy for aye!

2. Soon our Lord will come, the Morning Star appear;
Night is deep, and soon will dawn the day.
Never with the current of the age we go,
That from trials we'll be kept away.

3. Soon our Lord will come His servants to reward;
Those who love Him then the crown will share.
Watchful we must be and treasure not the world,
Love and serve the Lord, His burden bear.

Glory! Christ returns in bright array!
Glory! Overcomers shout that day!
"Well done, faithful servant!" hear the Master say,
"Enter My blest portion, yours for aye."

4. Soon our Lord will come and in His kingdom reign;
Satan will be bound, the world subdued.
We must fight the battle, overcome the foe;
On His throne He then will us include.
