

Things which eye has not seen

Scriptures for Singing

Things which eye has not seen and ear has not heard
and which have not come up in man's heart;
things which God has prepared for those who love Him;
things which God has prepared for those who love Him.
But to us God has revealed them through the Spirit,
for the Spirit searches all things,
even the depths of God. For who among men knows the things of man, except the spirit of man which is in him?
In the same way, the things of God also no one has known except the Spirit of God; no one has known except the Spirit of God.

The musical score is written in a single system with ten staves. It features a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (Bb), and a common time signature (C). The melody is primarily composed of quarter and eighth notes, with some triplet markings. Chord symbols are placed above the staff to indicate the harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are printed below the staff, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The score concludes with a double bar line.
