2. Grace that was prophesied in ancient times,
The Spirit has made clear;
Christ's all-sufficient, unlimited grace
Is to our hearts so dear.

3. The grace of life to the saints, strong and weak,
Is God as life supplied;
His divine Trinity flowing is grace,
Christ in us magnified.

4. The varied grace of God, riches of life,
Ministered by the saints,
Conveys the gracious, sweet words of Christ
With strength which never faints.

5. Grace to the humble the Grace-giver gives,
But He resists the proud;
Cast all your cares and fears onto God,
No worry to allow.

6. The God of all grace, the true grace of God,
In God's economy,
Consummates into the City of Grace,
Grace in eternity.
